GCI Hotel's Yamagen wins Best Hotel Restaurant

THE GOLD Coast International Hotel's Yamagen Restaurant has been named the Gold Coast's best Hotel Restaurant in the 2010 Regional Restaurant and Catering Queensland Awards for Excellence.

As a regional winner, Yamagen Restaurant will now compete in the State Final, to be held on September 13.

The multi-award winning Yamagen Restaurant is the pinnacle in Japanese culinary experiences on the Gold Coast, consistently delivering authentic and delectable cuisine, setting the bench mark for fine Japanese dining. The expertise and artistry of Yamagen's highly talented chefs, combined with a service ethic that is second to none, have long been recognised as the key ingredients to the restaurant's enviable reputation.

Diners can enjoy the choice of experiencing the sizzling aromas of meals prepared from Yamagen's famous Teppanyaki BBQ Grill, indulge in the inspired a la carte menu, including traditional shabu shabu and sukiyaki, or sample some of the many varieties of sushi prepared fresh daily by our very own Sushi Master.

Yamagen's highly talented and award-winning Teppanyaki chefs, including the Gold Coast's crowned Best Teppanyaki Chef, Mr Chris Radecki, will cook your most desired cuisine with precision and flair. From set menu options to individual items of wagyu beef and fresh lobster, there is a dish to suit all tastes.

GCI Hotel General Manager, Don Goode, relies upon his highly decorated and qualified chefs to continually produce the foremost in Japanese cuisine on the Gold Coast.

The many accolades bestowed on Yamagen are a direct reflection on the expertise of the chefs, said Mr Goode.

Combined with the superior levels of service and hospitality, the restaurant delivers on its promise of superb dining and affordability.

Fans of Yamagen Restaurant on Facebook receive updates and the latest seasonal menus. Guests regularly post their feedback and photos, highlighting the authentic and friendly atmosphere.

From the Sushi favourites and Teppanyaki Grill to the delectable dessert menu, Yamagen is an experience to be savoured and not to be missed.

Yamagen restaurant is located within the Gold Coast International Hotel, in the heart of Surfers Paradise. Yamagen is open for dinner from Monday to Saturday 5:30pm-10pm.
