CHRISTMAS SPIRIT ALIVE AT GOLD COAST INTERNATIONAL HOTEL

DATE RELEASED: Thursday, 26 November 2009

THE Gold Coast International Hotel is getting into the Christmas giving spirit by installing a stunningly-decorated donation tree in the hotel foyer.

From next Friday (27th), staff, hotel guests and locals are invited to place gifts of children's toys under the tree for donation to the Salvation Army in time for Christmas distribution.

Gold Coast International Hotel CEO Don Goode says he hopes all Gold Coaster's and guests will get behind the initiative and give to those less fortunate this year.

"We are asking for donations of toys for children of any age," Mr Goode said.

"They don't need to be wrapped and we'd ask that people not forget the older boys and girls.

"Boys particularly aged between 10 and 13 tend to miss out when it comes to donations because people like to donate gifts for small children, particularly girls.

"We are working in conjunction with the Salvation Army to collect as many gifts as we can for delivery just before Christmas Day," he said.

People are encouraged to take wrapped gifts to the Gold Coast International Hotel in Staghorn Avenue, Surfers Paradise between 27th November and 18th December.
